KINGSTON UPON THAMES

Wedding Venue

THE PERFECT
FOR YOUR WEDDING

Congratulations and welcome to County Hall

County Hall is a magnificent Grade II listed nineteenth-century building located close to Kingston upon Thames Town Centre. This commanding building is the perfect setting for your special day and offers a memorable backdrop with its outstanding character and original features.

Licensed for Civil Weddings and Partnership Ceremonies, the building with its stunning architecture and large inner Courtyard make it an idyllic setting for any wedding. With our combination of splendid rooms, that offer grandeur for ceremonies small or large and excellent customer service from our experienced events team, you need look no further than County Hall.

County Hall is fitting for both the ceremony and the reception where couples and their guests can have exclusive use of the licensed rooms and Courtyard for their wedding. Whether you choose the Grand Hall or one of our more intimate rooms, you will be well catered for in this special location.

County Hall is ideal for both small, intimate celebrations to the larger ceremonies and receptions which can accommodate up to 160 guests.

The Grand Entrance Hall

You're guaranteed to make a grand entrance from the moment you set foot in County Hall. Pass through the majestic oak doors and you are in the entrance hall, which is dominated by a striking stone staircase and original mosaic flooring. Light streams through stained glass windows making it a perfect setting for a photograph capturing the start of your celebration. From the entrance hall you proceed to the room of your choice. We prepare the room so it is perfect for your needs, whether it be theatre style, fully-seated cabaret-style dining or buffet receptions.

CIVIL WEDDING AND PARTNERSHIP CEREMONIES

County Hall is licensed for civil weddings and civil partnerships. We have a range of rooms available for your ceremony, depending on the number of guests, wedding style and requirements.

Ceremonies at County Hall occur on Saturday, Sunday, and some bank holidays.

We have a range of stunning areas which are available for your photography.

Please contact us for viewings and current availability. All wedding ceremonies are conducted by the local registrars service.

Once a date has been provisionally booked with ourselves you should then make independent arrangements with Kingston Register Office who perform all our marriage and partnership ceremonies.

Kingston Register Office can be contacted on 020 8547 4600.

VENUE INFORMATION

Only running one full wedding each day County Hall is a flexible venue like no other. With a range of rooms to offer for your ceremony, wedding breakfast and evening reception you can create a truly bespoke day.

We offer exclusive use of the licensed areas of County Hall.

We are happy to hold a provisional booking for your chosen wedding date for 14 days without obligation.

CATERING

Catering is provided separately by external caterers. These companies know the venue and how things work best, they can provide everything for your meal. They are highly professional caterers and event organisers who provide an excellent service combined with delicious and beautifully presented food.

We offer a choice of superb specialist caterers. For an idea of some of the menus that can be provided or to chat directly with either of the caterers please feel free to contact us for additional information.

Here at County Hall we understand that weddings can be costly, although the caterers can supply the Champagne and Wine for your special day, we do not charge corkage which means you are also able to supply your own drinks which the caterers will be happy to serve with your wedding.
