

THE ROYAL HORSEGUARDS HOTEL ONE WHITEHALL PLACE

MEETINGS AND EVENTS

A quintessentially British hotel and venue

The Royal Horseguards Hotel and One Whitehall Place proudly sits on the Victoria Embankment.

Stepping into Victorian elegance, you are welcomed by a grand circular marble staircase. Reach our historic rooms and discover ornate sculpted ceilings and glittering chandeliers. Proud of our history, we were home to the political and literary greats of the 19th and 20th century in British Society.

The Gladstone Library

A working library once upon a time, the essence of the original remains intact through faithful replicas of the 30,000 volumes which surround the room.

The high ceilings, magnificent faïence tiled columns and stunning chandeliers enhance the impressive Victorian grandeur of the room. The perfect backdrop for your event and conveniently interconnects to the Reading & Writing room.

Accommodation and Suites

Our 282 bedrooms offer a luxurious retreat from the hectic pace of London life. For your family gatherings to romantic getaways we have a room to suit your needs. For those special occasions we offer an array of signature suites.

One Twenty One Two

Our fine dining restaurant, One Twenty One Two, offers an award-winning modern British cuisine experience, using superlative ingredients sourced from around the British Isles. Able to host tables of up to 10 guests, it is named after the telephone number of the hotel's former neighbour, Scotland Yard. This restaurant continues to build a growing reputation in the Capital.

Equus Bar

With its eclectic fabrics and decor, Equus Bar recreates the 'gentlemen's club' atmosphere of the hotel's past, yet with great modern vibrancy. It celebrates our rich history with a range of contemporary cocktails named after famous former guests, including George Bernard Shaw and Sir Winston Churchill, complementing our extensive list of classic drinks. All suitably matched by a creative, modern British food menu.
