Langley Castle
WEDDINGS

Welcome

If you're looking for the ultimate wedding venue, look no further than Langley Castle Hotel, a stunning medieval castle located near to the World Heritage Site of Hadrian's Wall in romantic and welcoming Northumberland.

Langley Castle could have stepped right out of a fairytale and offers all you could desire for your special day, in true once-upon-a-time fashion. With ten-acre woodland estate and beautifully landscaped gardens, plus amazing castle backdrops and grandeur, there are many vistas to enjoy as you sip Prosecco or Pimms on the lawn, or gaze down from the battlements.

A Unique Venue

Let us make your dreams come true... be king and queen for a day in your own fairy-tale castle.

Unlike many castles, Langley has stayed true to its medieval roots, giving brides and grooms, or same-sex couples, the thrill of being pictured in window seats set into seven-foot walls and the drama of descending down spiral staircases, past knights in shining armour. This is a romance-charged venue that charms from the moment the castle is glimpsed from the bottom of its sweeping drive and which mesmerises the minute the wedding party fall under the spell of the sparkling chandeliers. With captivating windows, framed by richly coloured drapes, and little touches that provide huge talking points, this is a venue beyond compare in which to stage the timeless and ever in-vogue castle wedding.

Your Castle Ceremony

Revel in lovingly designed rooms, adding profound intimacy to your ceremony.

Our magnificent drawing room is the perfect venue for a smaller ceremony, whether spring and summer sunshine cascades through the window, or the log-fire crackles in winter. The Josephine room, on the other hand, is ideal for a larger celebration, of which we have hosted many, whether that's been for local couples, TV celebrities and their families, diplomats and influencers from overseas, or large Chinese wedding parties.

If the weather is fine our outdoor gazebo offers another appealing option for those wishing to mingle with family and friends and enjoy pre-wedding-breakfast drinks and canapes around our fountain.

The Reception

Pop the champagne corks, let the drinks flow and enjoy!

Langley wedding breakfasts are polished, but not aloof; attentive without being intrusive.

The day is all about you, and our aim is to effortlessly guide you from the start of your celebrations to the finish, creating a joyous occasion and long-lasting memories. We want your wedding banquet, first dance, evening buffet and last waltz to be played out like a dream, before you head for a nightcap in the drawing room to reflect on your perfect day.

Whether you wish to dine inside the castle, or have a marquee wedding in the grounds complete with fireworks, carousel, casino theming, or anything else that would add another wow-factor to your occasion, we will make it happen. With an experienced wedding team able to craft your wedding day as you want it, your true castle wedding will be truly unforgettable.

All the trimmings

At Langley Castle, your wedding day can be tailored around your interests, desires and whims.

Whether you wish to create a themed wedding – from Game of Thrones to Cinderella – or a wacky and fun occasion that reflects your humour, we are here to help you achieve just that.

All weddings can enjoy:

- Access to our gardens and grounds for photographs & drinks reception
- Red carpet reception
- Midday check-in for the bridal suite and three further guest rooms
- Toastmaster
- Use of a silver cake stand & knife
- White table linen and napkins
- Complimentary parking

All-exclusive occasions

Langley only hosts one wedding on any given day, ensuring the care and attention to detail that is essential for the success of any wedding reception.

But could you imagine having a complete castle at your disposal, playing king and queen and entertaining your friends and family most royally? Why not make that a reality? The castle and its grounds could be exclusively yours from noon on the day of the wedding, until 11am the following morning, which means 27 luxuriously appointed guest rooms, plus a 10-acre estate, are your kingdom for a wedding day of your dreams. Fairytales really can come true.

Food love

Our award-winning head chef and his talented team, relish preparing tantalising seasonal menus from which food lovers can choose, with the assurance that all dishes are made using only the finest and freshest ingredients.

Local produce is woven into menus wherever possible and we will try our utmost to accommodate individual requests. With a fine selection of wines and Champagnes in our 'cellars', your guests will be spoilt in true regal fashion.

Rooms with a view

What is a castle without sumptuous guest rooms? At Langley, all guest bedrooms within the incredible castle walls come with four-poster beds, feature bathrooms and a distinctive interior design.

A further 18 guest bedrooms are found within the grounds and these enjoy stunning views of the castle and lots of little comforts and bells and whistles. The aptly-named CastleView rooms range from standard rooms, to suites and superior rooms, and all provide a fabulous degree of comfort and great relaxation spaces. Guests staying here may also get an added bonus - fabulous photos and video clips of our resident strutting peacocks!

Your wedding-day team

Our professional Langley Castle team has decades of experience in managing any kind of wedding you could imagine, from glitzy to small and intimate, and from themed to marquee.

We will be with you every step of the way, from your first tentative enquiry, to the minute you head off for your honeymoon, with the aim of delivering our usual faultless and finesse-filled service. With safe pairs of hands behind your day, you can have total peace of mind and relax and enjoy every single moment. This really is a once-upon-a-time wedding venue, setting you on the way to living happily ever after.
