

The Phoenix String Quartet

For you and your guests the music of PHOENIX will help make your wedding a truly memorable occasion.

The Phoenix String Quartet, formed in 1979, are four professional musicians who between them have worked with orchestras such as The London Symphony Orchestra, The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, The London Philharmonic and The BBC Symphony Orchestra. They have also performed in various West End Shows, including Evita, Phantom of the Opera, Miss Saigon and Sunset Boulevard, and with singers such as Luciano Pavarotti, Elton John, Michael Ball and Diana Ross.

We have played for over a thousand weddings as well as countless corporate events with some attended by royalty and have a repertoire of music of over 24 hours ranging from Vivaldi to Jimi Hendrix. We also have our own amplification and period costumes at extra cost.
