WELCOME

Period features, picturesque gardens and a Mansion House filled with history and heritage.
The stage is set for your dream day.

Nestled within 250 acres of Berkshire parkland, De Vere Wokefield Estate is a venue quite unlike any other. Built in 1788 by celebrated architect Sir John Soane, the estate has welcomed distinguished guests into its surroundings for centuries.

Explore our grounds to discover elegantly manicured
lawns with views across the lake, then step inside to reveal interiors that have recently undergone a £20 million transformation. Now, original features including fluted columns, dramatic ceilings and grand fireplaces blend beautifully with contemporary interior design, creating a luxurious atmosphere for your wedding day.

THE LINCOLN SUITE

Bathed in natural daylight, the contemporary Lincoln Suite offers a memorable setting, seating up to 120 guests for both civil ceremonies and wedding breakfasts. Surrounded by beautiful views, your guests can take in the surrounding gardens and lake vistas, which of course also provide a wonderful backdrop for your wedding photographs.

THE PALMER AND OLD LOUNGE

Seating a maximum of 60 guests for a civil ceremony and 90 guests for a wedding breakfast between the two rooms. Each room is home to period features, including an ornate fireplace in the Old Lounge and The Palmer's historical ceiling features.
