HISTORY OF THE MANOR PARC HOTEL

Built in 1850 as a country manor house, Y Parc as it was then called was home to the England family, potato merchants from Cardiff who were key in developing the Pembrokeshire new potato.

Y Parc was sold in 1917 to the Keen family who were steel merchants and co-owners of Guest, Keen and Nettlefold Steel in Cardiff.

In 1984 Y Parc became the Manor Parc Restaurant, a family run business which subsequently became the Manor Parc Country Hotel and Restaurant in 1990.

Entrusted to the next generation in 2015 the Manor Parc remains an independent family run venue with an excellent reputation for its customer service, dining and functions

THE ORANGERIE

Natural light floods through its glass domed ceiling. With patio doors leading out onto the terrace, the Orangerie can seat up to 80 people for a wedding breakfast and host 110 people for the evening buffet

THE CEDAR ROOM

With its two bay windows and patio doors looking out to the two Cedar trees in the gardens, the Cedar Room can host wedding ceremonies and wedding breakfasts for up to 110 guests. Up to 160 people can be accommodated for the evening buffet
