

Bryan provides an original bespoke close-up magic service which enables him to fit into any occasion. From personalised playing cards to one off individual effects, Bryan prides himself with the fact that he actively involves the guests during his performance. It is this interaction that enables Bryan to break the ice on any occasion for even the most difficult groups. Bryan mixes his precise sleight of hand with a good humored approach so he can deliver the perfect non-intrusive form of entertainment

"Absolutely amazing entertainment.
Perfect addition to our party"
Gareth and Emma

DRINKS

After the Ceremony why not add a little magic during the photography or drinks reception? This option is sure to entertain your guests at a time where there would otherwise be a lull. Having Bryan performing magic during the photographs creates perfect moments for the photographers to capture your guests reactions.

"Bryan is absolutely amazing at what he does. He performed at our wedding during the drinks reception and everyone was blown away. Everyone commented on how the magic was so amazing"

Rachel and Richard

THE WEDDING BREAKFAST

Close Up Table magic in between the courses of the meal, is the perfect ice breaker for guests around the tables. Working along with the table service he seamlessly fits in to any event. Bryan classifies himself as an animated table decoration, using his skill perfected from over a thousand weddings, Bryan introduces and makes the guests feel more relaxed and leaves them ready for the party spirit to take over.

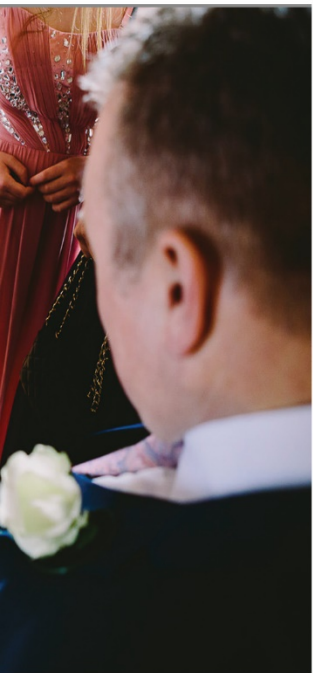

“The best money I’ve ever spent on entertainment. The guests were either mesmerized, confused or in fits of laughter. Couldn’t recommend him more highly”

AFTER THE SPEECHES

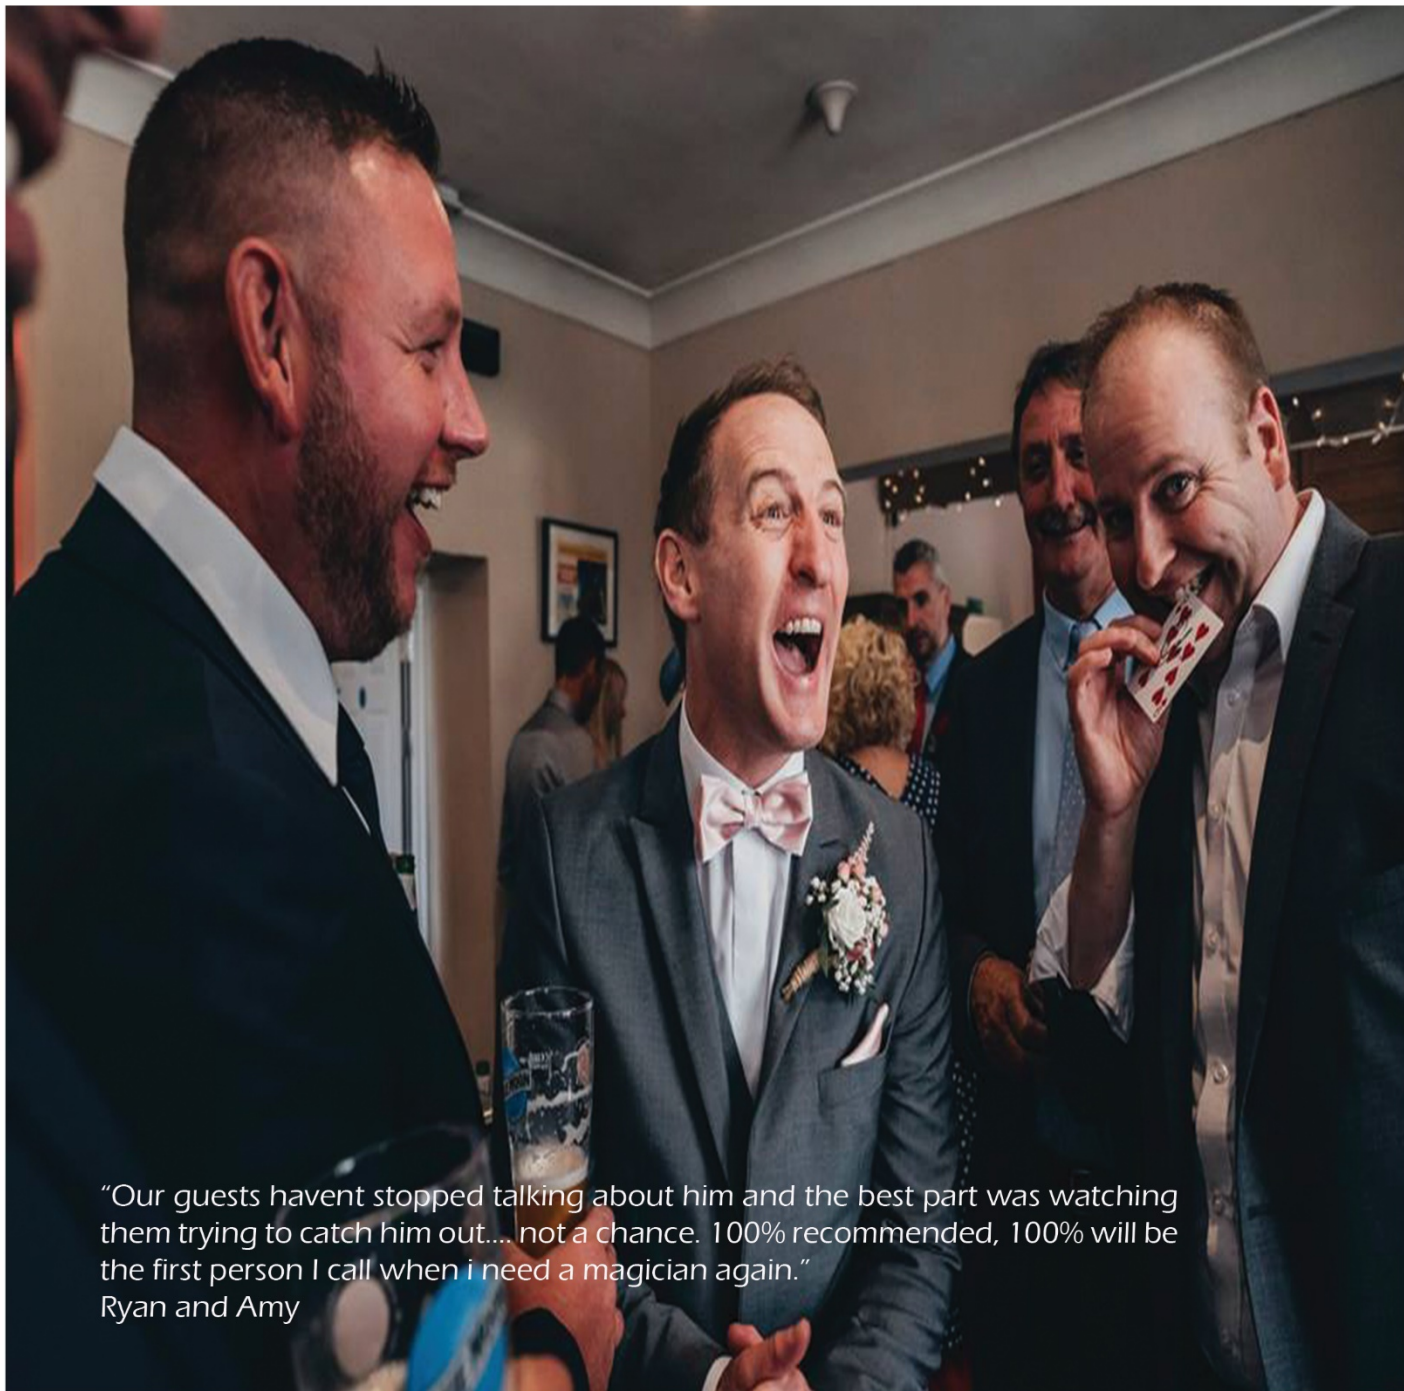

Close-up table magic after the speeches and before the evening reception. This option creates a fantastic ambience for your guests from the day and also your evening guests that arrive early for the evening reception. Close-up magic at this time is the perfect solution for the transition period between the day and the night.

"So glad that we booked him. He managed to bond all the tables together through his magic. It was touching the effort Bryan went to, tailoring his magic into his performance. Thank you again Bryan"

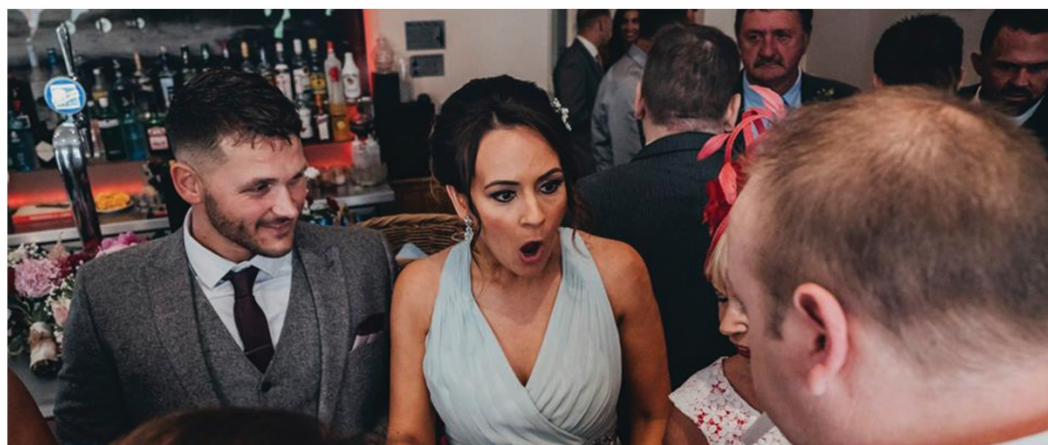

Simon and Hayley

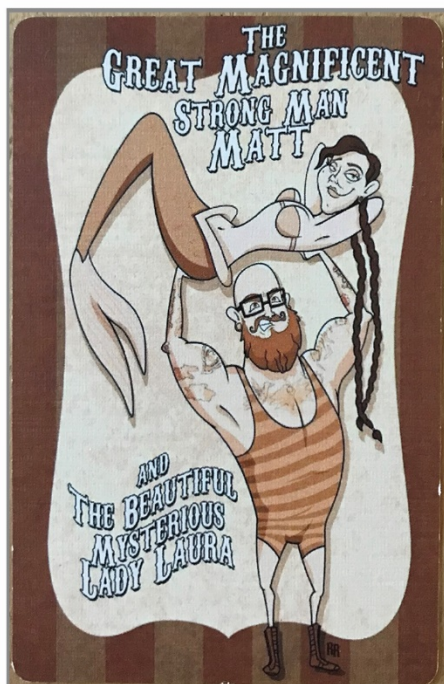

"Our guests havent stopped talking about him and the best part was watching them trying to catch him out.... not a chance. 100% recommended, 100% will be the first person I call when i need a magician again."
Ryan and Amy

EVENING RECEPTION

Mix and mingle / table magic to entertain at the evening reception. If you have a quieter environment available for guests who do not enjoy discos and bands, close-up magic in the bar or lounge area will produce an incredible response.

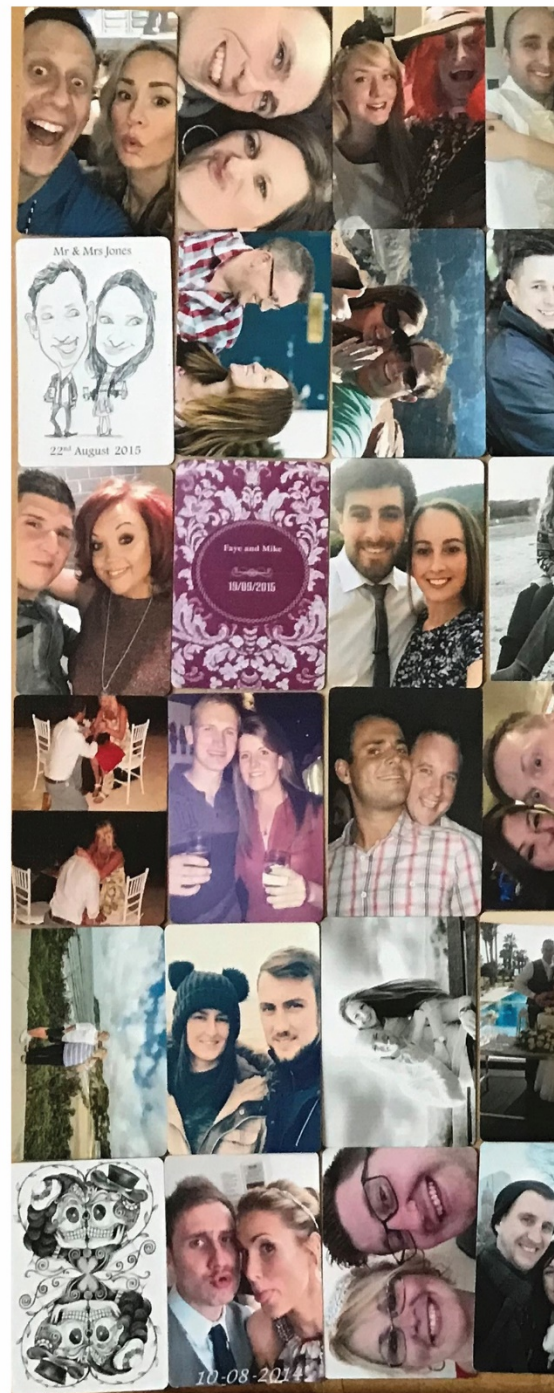

BESPOKE

Bryan uses personalised playing cards in all his performances, this allows him to fit into any theme. Use a favourite photograph making the magic a little more magical for you.

From classical engagement photographs to a dog who was the best man. Maybe a favourite tattoo or a zombie bride and groom, the choice is yours.

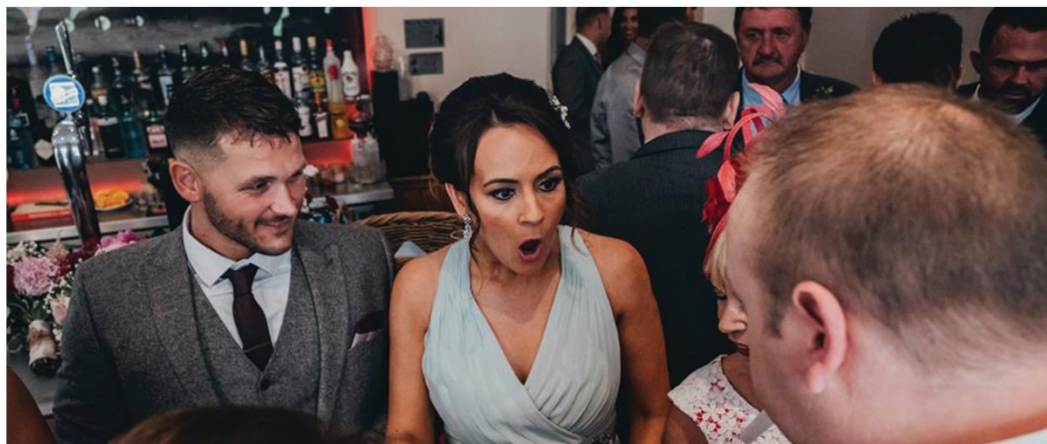

PRICING

After performing at over a thousand weddings Bryan believes that every wedding is different. If you would like a price based on the required option just let him know.
