A JEOGILE PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding Photographers

About Us

AJDoyle Photography is based just outside Lutterworth, Leicestershire, having had a keen interest in photography since a young age, when I brought my first camera, I couldn't stop being outdoors taking photos of anything that happened to be in front of me. The enjoyment of being behind the camera has just got more and more over the years.

Whether the event would be a sports day, commercial photo shoot or a wedding every day is different, with that there is no better feeling than capturing the special moments and being able to share the moments with everyone.

We love doing all kinds of photography work through-out the UK, being based in Leicestershire in the heart of the Midlands its easy and a quick commute to many different places around the country.

Georgina & Mark Hopkinson

Having grown up with Georgina and attending school with her for a number of years, it was an honour to be asked to do her and fiancée Mark's wedding photography which would be held in the stunning Manchester town hall. Having arrived an hour and a half before the service, I had plenty of time to get some shots of the ceremony room and also the reception room where the guests would be sitting for the wedding breakfast, before heading back outside into the stunning sunshine to wait for the arrival of the bridal party. As we headed upstairs towards the ceremony room,

I took some shots of Georgina on the candle lit staircase, where we would get a lot more stunning photos later in the day with the family, I stayed until about an hour after the first dance meaning we got the whole day including speeches, cake cutting and the natural ones of the guests enjoying the special day with the married couple.

Laura & Mickey Holmes

Laura and Mickey's wedding service was held at the Holy Trinity Church in Attleborough, Nuneaton Warwickshire. Before the wedding both Aaron and Kevin went to attend bridal prep and also the Groom Prep. Mickey was getting ready at Western Hall hotel where they would enjoy the wedding reception later in the day, Laura was joined at the family home in Attleborough, from there she would make her way to the Church for the Service. One thing that stood out to me in the church was the balcony area, so not only could you get stunning close up shots from the ground but Kevin positioned himself on the balcony for some long range shots, when Mickey and Laura were exchanging rings from the ground this could have been a difficult shot to get but having the second photographer was a massive advantage.

After the service had finished Kevin again was in a perfect position to get a stunning shot of the new married couple walking down the aisle together. After a few family shots outside the church, we headed to the hotel where more of the natural photos were taken inside with quests before they sat down for the wedding breakfast and speeches that followed, after a short break between the reception and evening reception Aaron managed to get chance to take the couple of photographs outside between rain showers to get some stunning photos under the pergola in the gardens. It was onto the evening reception for the first dance and cake cutting with the evening quests.

Sarah & Robert Markley

Aaron and Kevin both had the honour of being a part of Sarah and Robert's wedding day which first of all started with the bridal prep which was held at Sarah's family home which Kevin went and got some photos of while Aaron went and met up with Robert and his brother and father at his family home before we headed to St Mary's Church in Barwell where the service was held before some family photos outside the church in the lovely grounds surrounding it.

After the formalities it was onto the reception venue which was held at Ullesthorpe court hotel, on a arrival all the guests were given a glass of bucks fizz which was put out in the shape of a heart just inside the door. Before we headed upstairs Kevin got some natural photos of the guests chatting and enjoying the sunshine during the day whilst Aaron took the bride and groom down to overlook the 18th Green along with the lovely vintage wedding car which had brought them to the reception venue.

After about 45 minutes of relaxing outside everyone was called inside to sit for the wedding breakfast which took place in the Ashby Suite which was a nice and cosy sized room as it was only a limited number of guests for the wedding breakfast of around 40-50 people.

Kevin did the guest speeches before leaving Aaron to do the cake cutting and first dance later in the evening.

Amy & Tom Berry

Aaron had been approached by Tom enquiring about doing his wedding photography which took no time at all to agree too as, we had grown up from a very young age together. Meeting up with Tom and Amy was a bit of a challenge at times hence why the whole wedding was booked and sorted near on 18 months in advance because of Tom spending a lot of time away in the forces with work duties.

The day started out with Kevin attending Amy's Family home where he was to do some bridal prep photos with Amy's mum and dad along with 7 brothers and sisters! Aaron had the slightly easier task of some groom prep photos at Tom's mum and dads home where it was Tom, his mum and dad, brother and 2 ushers. Before both parties made there way to the stunning Misterton Church set in the private grounds of Misterton Hall to the ceromony, after a few family photos outside the church it was onto the reception venue which was The three Shires restaurant which was perfect for Tom and Amy's guests as it had a lovely spacious garden with play equipment and nice and surcluded for more family photos. It was then onto the wedding breakfast and speeches before a chilled afternoon sitting in the bright summer sunshine on the patio while the children ran around and enjoyed the garden and play area before the first dance.

Aaron has also been asked to do Tom and Amy's Baby photos which is due in early August 2017 which is exciting news all round.

Can't recommend Aaron enough!! Got loads of amazing pictures of our special day. Both him and his brother were so patient when they arrived and neither the bride nor bridesmaids were photo ready. Was around all day getting both posed and natural photos which contrast each other perfect-ly. I have had nothing but praise about my photos and I have nothing but praise for my photographer.

Natasha & Dominic Hurr

Well where do we start with Aaron and his Team? First of all having to try and sort out getting the creases out of my the wedding dress phoning all open business in Market Harborough at 8am to no avail, so they managed to steam the creases out themselves which was fabulous, They couldn't do enough for you on the day and the photography skills they have is brilliant! Thank you so much Dan And Marie'

⁴Love the photos very professional quality service captured the fun we had on our special day. Memorable moments are brought back every time we look at them! Really Aaron you are just fab and I would highly recommend you x²

Sue & Neil Connor

⁴Aaron was a great wedding photographer, we looked around at many but Aaron suited our needs perfectly with how flexible he was. He was always focused on making sure he was doing everything possible to capture our special day. Our wedding guests who have got married since have used him because he was so friendly to them on the day and always willing to take as many photos as people wanted. His service after the wedding was spot on! I would recommend him to anyone.⁹
