MULTICULTURAL WEDDINGS

UNIQUE | SPECIAL | PERFECT

A high-angle, close-up photograph of a bride and groom. The bride, on the left, has her reddish-brown hair styled in an elegant updo with several hairpins. She is wearing a white, strapless, off-the-shoulder wedding dress with a ruffled bodice and a small, sparkling earring. The groom, on the right, is wearing a dark suit jacket and has his hair styled back. They are both looking down at a large, vibrant bouquet of flowers held by the bride. The bouquet is a mix of pink and white roses, accented with greenery and small purple flowers. The background is a soft, out-of-focus white fabric, likely a wedding veil or backdrop, which creates a clean, bright, and romantic atmosphere. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the textures of the dress and the colors of the flowers.

MULTICULTURAL WEDDINGS AT HUNTON PARK

A sweeping driveway surrounded by 22 acres of magnificent rural Hertfordshire parkland, brings you to a charming Queen Anne Mansion House. With its classic Georgian proportions, tall white columns, and impressive marquee, Hunton Park, offers style and elegance - the perfect setting for your wedding.

Over its 190-year history the house has played host to a number of colourful landowners, lords and ladies and was chosen as the location for the 1970 romantic film, Raging Moon. The house can now be the backdrop for your special day. Today, Hunton Park offers much more than breath-taking beauty and historic grandeur.
