With packages and options to suit everyone, you can have confidence that we will ensure you have your wedding exactly as you dream.

Arrival & Welcome

Farnham House Hotel is approached over a long tree lined drive set in fine countryside. Our five acres of beautiful landscaped gardens provide many photographic opportunities as well as space for guests to mingle and wander.

Our Moon Gate is particularly popular for photographs. Tradition states that newlyweds should walk through it for good luck with their future together.

The reception lounge bar is perfect for welcoming your guests with a drink on arrival.

Civil

Ceremony

The Oak Room is licensed for civil ceremonies for up to 80 and has doors leading directly to the well-established gardens. There is also ample natural light from the large bi-folding doors.

Airconditioned and newly refurbished the Oak Room will be set with a centre aisle allowing for a formal entry with your choice of music and decoration.

Enjoy your civil ceremony outdoors between April and September within our beautiful Garden Pavilion. A red carpet is set down the centre of the garden to create a classical aisle way and the pavilion is then yours to decorate as you wish.

We would be happy to recommend musicians and florists to make your ceremony unique to you.

The Cedar Room is your main wedding reception room is furnished to a high standard.

The room comfortably seats 80 guests for the wedding breakfast. Whether you decide on a traditional sit-down meal or something a little different like an afternoon tea or BBQ – we can set the room accordingly.

Our History

In 1896, Willey Park Estate was built for Charles Frederick Roumieu.

The house itself is an Arts & Crafts Building in the style of Richard Norman Shaw. It was one of the first in the area to have electricity built into its fabric as it had its own generator in the grounds.

The house is a building of delightful quirks, a solid Victorian presence and modern comfort. Within the bell tower, there is a bell dated 1805 (the year of the battle of Trafalgar) which was used to summon estate workers to dinner.

During the Second World War, the house became a residential nursery run as a joint venture by the Red Cross and the order of St John.

In the summer of 1979, the building was purchased by Mr Norman Levitt and opened as Trevena House Hotel and is now known as Farnham House Hotel.
