The National Museum of the Royal Navy Hartlepool

YOUR WEDDING CEREMONY

The National Museum of the Royal Navy Hartlepool is licensed for civil ceremonies. Our unique location can offer a perfect setting in which to get married, the likes of which are unparalleled in the North East.

Our magnificent spaces can be hired for ceremonies only, or you can continue the celebration with a seamless move into the reception, ensuring you and your guests have a stress-free day.

YOUR WEDDING RECEPTION

From intimate to extravagant, you will find the perfect space for your reception. Our dedicated events team are committed to matching your needs to the right setting for you.

For your wedding breakfast, we can offer a selection of menu options to appeal to all tastes and budgets. Your chosen menu will be complimented with a great selection of wines or non-alcoholic alternatives.

As the perfect end to your special day, let us take care of your evening reception. You won't have to worry about a thing as you and your guests dance the night away.

HMS TRINCOMALEE

Immerse yourself in over 200 years of naval history by celebrating your special day on-board Europe's oldest warship still afloat: HMS Trincomalee. As the centrepiece of our historic quayside, she is an exceptional venue in which to hold your ceremony or reception, as well as acting as an unforgettable backdrop for a drinks reception on dry land.

Trincomalee offers two incredible spaces for both ceremonies and your evening event; the Captain's cabin or the gun deck. Exclusive hire of the ship provides a truly one-of-a-kind experience that you can share for years to come with your friends and family.
